

IOD Special Event 2/2016

Dhamma Talk: Ethical Leadership

13th June 2016, 09.00-12.30 hrs.
at 3rd Floor, IOD (Northpark Project, Vibhavadi-Rangsit Rd.)

Event Overview

Ethical leadership is the root of a sustained business. Good governance begins with the people at the very top being dedicated to the happiness of employees and other stakeholders at no lesser magnitude than corporate financial return. British monk Ajahn Brahmavamsa Mahathera, commonly known as Ajahn Brahm, will speak to business leaders on the significance of ethical leadership, its vital role in driving organizations toward better governance and sustainability, and how top executives can lead to achieve desirable results. Having been in monk's robes for 40 years, Ajahn Brahm is famous for applying scientific and logical thinking to complement his Buddhist teachings.

About Speaker

Ajahn Brahmavamsa Mahathera (known to most as Ajahn Brahm) was born Peter Betts in London, United Kingdom in August 7, 1951. After graduating from Cambridge University, he taught in a school for one year before travelling to Thailand to become a monk and train with the Venerable Ajahn Chah Bodhinyana Mahathera. Whilst still in his years as a junior monk, he was asked to undertake the compilation of an English-language guide to the Buddhist monastic code - the Vinaya - which later became the basis for monastic discipline in many Theravadan monasteries in Western countries. After practising for nine years as a monk, he was sent to Perth by Ajahn Chah in 1983. Now, Ajahn Brahm is the Abbot of Bodhinyana Monastery, in Serpentine - Western Australia and is a wonderful speaker who gives regular talks at the Dhammaloka Buddhist Centre.
